6 Problems

Some of the current crypto exchanges suffer from several problems:

6.1 Poor technical architecture

Many exchanges are "put together quickly", by good tech people, but who have little or no experience in finance or in operating an exchange. They often choose the simplest approach to get the system up and running. While this may work well in the beginning, as traffic grows, the system will not be able to handle the increased load. Exchange systems need to be engineered from the ground up with security, efficiency, speed, and scalability in mind. This often slows down the initial development, but is critical for long-term success.

Our team has decades of combined experience building and maintaining world class financial systems that shape the economy. We understand how these systems are built from the ground up.

6.2 Insecure platform

There are hundreds of exchanges that went down due to being hacked. Crypdom is built to high standards, audited, and penetration tested. We have experience building financial systems to the highest security standards and strive to ensure security first.

6.3 Poor market liquidity

Professional traders and normal users are significantly affected by this. Having a shallow orderbook means high slippage when trading, which is very expensive for traders. Getting miners, institutional Investors and large traders into a new exchange is a chicken and egg problem, and requires a team with deep industry resources.

Crypdom's team have been in both the finance and crypto industry for many years. The team has worked on and operated a number of exchanges, and have accumulated a large network of partners in this space. These partners will be key in bootstrapping the exchange.

6.4 Poor customer service

Traders are a different breed when it comes to users. Understanding the trader mentality is vital for running a successful exchange. Money is literally on-the-line. A 5-second delay in seeing your friends' status update would hardly be noticed, but on an exchange, the same would be unacceptable, resulting in a torrent of user complaints. In addition to the technology stack, Crypdom is built with service in mind. Crypdom shares support responsibilities across the entire staff and company. When a trader has a problem, they get an answer directly from someone who knows the system and not someone reading from a script.

6.5 Poor internationalization and language support

Blockchains have no borders. Most exchanges focus only on one language or one country. Our international multi-lingual team has extensive working experience in North America, Europe and Asia, and we are able to smoothly support the global market.

7 Crypdom Exchange

7.1 Matching Engine

Our matching engine is capable of sustaining 1,000,000 orders / second, making Crypdom one of the fastest exchanges in the market today. You can be certain, on our exchange, that your orders will never be stuck due to the matching engine being overwhelmed.

9 Risks

There are many risks involved in running an exchange. We understand this and have the skills, experience, and leadership to overcome them.

9.1 Security is Paramount

Many crypto exchanges have failed due to poor security procedures. Most security breaches could have been prevented by taking simple precautions to protect critical resources. Our team has developed Crypdom with security as the foremost concern in their minds.

9.2 Market Competition

We know this will be an ultra competitive space. There are probably hundreds, if not thousands of teams wanting, planning or doing exchanges. Competition will be fierce. But in this age, this is a common risk in any decent concept/startup or mature company. The question is: given our team, track record, experience, industry resources, and product, do you believe we stand a better chance than the rest of the pack?

If yes, then please join our ICO.
